San Diego- October 20, 2010- Jean Isaacs San Diego Dance Theater presents three magical evenings of contemporary dance at this year's Cabaret Dances staged at a brand new venue. Cabaret Dances has been presented at the San Diego Museum of Art and most recently, at Anthology Supper Club and Dance Place.

"We're thrilled at the opportunity to perform at a larger theater to provide a fully produced professional show and better viewing for our audiences. The Garfield Theater has state of the art lighting, projections and sound that will showcase the talent of our dancers and the entire creative team," explained Isaacs.

The theater will be transformed into a stylish and classy cabaret with a nod to the 1920s Gershwin era. Food and beverages provided by Eron Baker Catering and will be available with a dinner/show package.

The program takes its cue from the mood and atmosphere of a nightclub is an extension of Isaacs wildly popular "Rhapsody in Blue" show presented this spring. It will feature live music from Fred Benedetti (guitar), Steve Baker (piano) and Rachel Drexler (vocal). Cabaret Dances MC duties will be handled by LA comedian Claude Stuart, a frequently performer at the world famous Hollywood Improv and at comedy clubs across the country.

Featured company dancers include Blythe Barton, Annie Boyer, Alana Burree, Matt Carney, Anthony Diaz, John Diaz, Tristan Loucado, and Minaqua McPherson, with special guest Sarah Larson and others.

Cabaret Dances is supported by the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture, James Irvine Foundation and County Supervisors Pam Slater-Price, Greg Cox and Ron Roberts.
